This Sunday!

A new pulpit supply pastor will be here on Sunday and be with us for the next 4 weeks.

Fellowship Hour

Council, please bring non sweet items.

Congregation is asked to provide desserts!

Pictorial Directory

Thank you to all that participate in one of the three photo events for the new pictorial directory.

If you were unable to get your photo taken, please send one through email to the office or you may drop one off between the hours of 10 and 2.

Office Administrator

Thuy will be on vacation from Friday, June 16th thru Monday, July 17th. Debbie Wickham will be covering the office from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Internet Disruption

As you know we have been transitioning our server and electronic files over to a new system. We have experienced some technical difficulties and will be scrapping the old and starting over.

For the next month, we will slowly be integrating the new system and we may experience outages. If you have something important you need to get to the office, please drop it by.

Thank you for your patience.

Cemetery Plots

There are 5 plots for sale by the church at Washington Memorial.

If you know of someone in need or to start your memorial planning, contact Noel Gibb.

Funds

The council approved a Maintenance Fund & Organ Fund and Portals of Prayer Fund to help offset some of the costs of Maintenance around the facility and the cost of Portals of Prayer.

You may donate to either fund by earmarking your giving envelopes Maintenance Fund or Organ Fund or Portals of Prayer Fund. Remember, this is above and beyond your normal giving.

Worship and Music

Joanne Parks would like to know if you have any favorite songs or hymns that you would like to see added to a worship service.

On Sunday, pick up a comment form at the information table and write your songs or hymns. Turn it in with the offering and the Worship Planning Team will see which week we can include it.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Please join the Christian Education ministry team on Mondays, at 3:30 p.m., in the Fellowship Room Vacation Bible School meeting.
